With so many options to choose from, deciding on a major can be a daunting task. This course will provide an overview of the elements of good decision-making and will offer students the opportunity to identify their interests, strengths, and values. Students will be introduced to the academic opportunities available at the University of Connecticut and will learn strategies for making educated and timely decisions about majors and careers. Note: Classes meet for two hours the first seven weeks of the semester except 1820.021 which meets twice a week for one hour for the first seven weeks.
