The PA²SS (Peer African Americans Sustaining Success) course is offered to assist first- and second-year African American students in making a healthy, productive, and successful transition to college life at UConn.

Students will gain
1) A peer mentor
2) Leadership skills
3) Opportunities to participate in community outreach and social justice initiatives.