Instructors: Stacy Hayden and Pam Peters
UNIV 1820.017, COURSE #16377

Challenging Social Norms

Critically analyze social norms within our communities, our university and our world. Over the course of the semester we will investigate aspects of social norms theory and apply them by creating a norms campaign. You will develop research skills, determine strategies to challenge social norms, and learn how to make a difference in your community.