THE ART & LIFE OF MARC CHAGALL THROUGH PUPPET SPECTACLE

UNIV 1820. 001
Friday's 1:25 pm - 2:15 pm
Instructor: Alyson Doyle

Students will be introduced to the life and work of Expressionist painter Marc Chagall, and the history of community puppet parade/pageantry in the United States. They will subsequently create and perform with giant puppets of their own design, and have the option to participate in a community pageant inspired by Chagall’s life to cap off the academic year in April of 2024.
